The Building & Planning staff members are not authorized to fill out your board application, correlate the above items or answer technical questions. If you are not sure how to go about appealing to the Building Code Board of Appeals, it is advised that you obtain an attorney to help you.

Attached to this checklist is the appeal and instructions on how to fill out the appeal form.

Plot plans may be hand drawn as long as all information is accurate. It must contain all pertinent information. A detailed plan means a plan that shows what you are building.

Tax maps may be obtained either in Doylestown at the courthouse or in the township building. In order for us to provide you with a copy your tax map, you will need your tax parcel number from your tax bills. The courthouse telephone number is 215-355-7497. Ask for tax mapping.

You can obtain a copy of your deed from the Recorder of Deeds office in Doylestown.

Notarization. Have the first copy notarized. When you make copies the notarization will show up on all the copies. Submit all copies plus the original.

Important: the Zoning Hearing Board requires submission of proof of notification, of adjoining property owners before your appeal can be heard.
